In Memoriam: Philip Jones Griffiths 1936-2008

Philip Jones Griffiths was a truly remarkable man and photographer who made an unforgettable contribution to PhotoVoice's work. We feel deeply honoured to have known Philip and incredibly privileged to have learnt from him. We will be forever grateful for his generosity and support and will, like so many, miss him dearly.

PhotoVoice extends huge thanks to all fundraising, office and project volunteers.

ANNUAL REPORT 2007-2008

PhotoVoice
www.photovoice.org

1st April 2007 - 31st March 2008

“PhotoVoice gives a voice to those people who have probably never had one before. That is the genius of PhotoVoice and that is what empowers. By giving them cameras, by allowing them to record their life stories, PhotoVoice creates an amazingly valuable opportunity, enhancing self esteem and enabling people to relate to their pasts and deal with their futures.”

Philip Jones Griffiths, Photojournalist

“Taking these photos has made me look at things deeper... I want to show who I am and why I came here. Photography has been a therapy for me. I learned how to break free of myself.”
